You & Yours

Wedding at Rydal Mount

"Come grow old with me. The best is yet to be."

- William Wordsworth

Introduction

Welcome To Rydal Mount & Gardens

Rydal Mount, in the heart of the English Lake District, lies between Ambleside and Grasmere and commands glorious views of Windermere, Rydal Water and the surrounding fells.

This was William Wordsworth's best-loved family home for the greater part of his life, from 1813 to his death in 1850 at the age of 80.

The house, which was a focus for romantic literature, continues to be owned by the Wordsworth family and retains the feel of a lived-in family home.

Wordsworth was a keen landscape gardener, and the 5-acre garden remains very much as he designed it. It consists of fell-side terraces, rock pools and an ancient mound.

Ceremony

We are registered for official ceremonies with Cumbria Registration services. The front room can host up to 60 people inside with the patio and gardens in the bay window as backdrop. If the weather is lovely, go outdoors and use the bottom lawn which looks over the lake and is a beautiful wander away through the gardens.

Bar Area

We have a dedicated area with a canopy which can be used for the service of drinks. We can also help you choose the best way of serving your drinks, whether with a dedicated supplier or self service.

Garden Party

The Mount (a sheltered area in the gardens) can hold a marquee for up to 80 people and we will help you find the right supplier to build that for you, including the lighting, furniture and so much more. What do you fancy; marquee or tipi or stretch tent?!
